

Architectural Design Specification Collection

Oliveri®

Today Oliveri is Australia's only commercial pressed bowl sink manufacturer and one of the country's best home grown success stories.

Our success in manufacturing has evolved to importing and distributing a wide range of European styled products for the Australian market.

Oliveri is delighted to present our Architectural Design Specification Collection to the industry.

This collection has been selected from our extensive range of high quality products with offerings for the kitchen, laundry and bathroom.

We are excited to work with you to deliver an all-of-home solution for your next project.
